MTMT – Hungarian Scientific Bibliography Database

It is a comprehensive national bibliographic database of scientific publications and citations

Why to use?

- Valid, uniformed and controlled, countrywide
- Standardized, preferred for personal bibliography
- Necessary for University Doctoral Schools
- Necessary for applications for grants, scholarships, academic positions
- Mandatory for the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Doctoral Database, Hungarian Accreditation System

How to start: REGISTRATION

- Checking your personal data
- Taking new publication's data into the system
- Taking new citation's data into the system
- Generating an overview - publication list for author, summary table for author

MTMT at Corvinus University of Budapest

- Provisions of the Rector No. 3/2020. \(X. 6.\)
- The librarian's task
- MTMT webform

How to choose?

Amount of journals and opportunities, but...

Be aware:

- The most important and recognized journals of your research area
- Where the similar research scholars publish
- What your instructor and/or co-author say
- Language
- Availability (Open Access), Open Access at Corvinus, DOAJ
- Peer-reviewed journals
- Journals in subscribed databases, SuperSearch
- Journal lists of Hungarian Academy of Sciences (HAS)
- International Journal Rankings
 - Journal Citation Reports - Web of Science – Master Journal List
 - Scimago Journal & Country Rank – SJR - Scopus

To avoid Predatory journals

Typical signs of predatory journals:

- Predatory publishers
- Searching for the author
- Contact data limited to an email address
- Ordinary title, unrelated research fields
- No peer-review and quality control
- Authors are requested to pay a fee upon the submission of the manuscript
- The publisher insists on retaining all authorship rights
